CHEROKEE REGIONAL MEDICAL CENTER ANNOUNCES SCHOLARSHIP WINNERS

Each spring, Cherokee Regional Medical Center and the Cherokee Regional Medical Center Auxiliary each award scholarships to area high school seniors who are interested in pursuing a career in health care. There were many outstanding applicants from the graduating class of 2018 so a total of six scholarships were awarded.

Two CRMC Kenneth Hobson Memorial Scholarships were awarded this year. The recipients were Cameron Miller, of MMC-RU High School and Paityn Hagberg, of Cherokee Washington High School.

Cameron is the son of Jim and Traci Miller. He will attend the University of South Dakota with plans to major in medical biology with the goal of becoming a physician.

Paityn is the daughter of Heath Hagberg and Lanette Peterson. She plans to attend Briar Cliff University to major in nursing.

The recipient of the CRMC John M. Comstock Scholarship was Cherokee Washington High School senior, Alayne Graybill, daughter of Brett and Jayla Graybill of Cherokee. Alayne plans to attend the University of South Dakota and major in medical biology with the goal of becoming a physician.

The three recipients of the CRMC Auxiliary Scholarships were Cherokee Washington High School seniors Shelby Dolphin and MacKenzie Walker; and Ridge View High School senior, Paige Todd.

Shelby is the daughter of Lee and Julie Dolphin. She plans to attend Northwest Iowa Community College in Sheldon to pursue her nursing degree.

MacKenzie is the daughter of Torrie Tuggle and Mike Walker. She plans to attend Northwest Iowa Community College in Sheldon to pursue a career as a radiologic technologist.

Paige is the daughter of Tom and Heidi Todd. She will be attending the University of Northern Iowa with the goal of becoming a speech language pathologist.

Congratulations to all of the CRMC scholarship winners. We wish them the best in their future endeavors.
