Cherokee Regional Clinic in Aurelia to Hold Meet & Greet to Welcome New Provider Come Meet Traci Hagen, ARNP-C, on Wednesday, July 18

On Wednesday, July 18, 2018, Cherokee Regional Clinic in Aurelia will host a come and go Open House from 10:00-11:30 a.m. to introduce Traci Hagen, ARNP-C, as a new clinic provider. Hagen began seeing patients at the Aurelia Clinic earlier this summer alongside current provider, Rebecca Mogensen-Kruger, ARNP-C.

The meet and greet event is open to the public and residents of Aurelia and the surrounding communities are encouraged to attend. Refreshments will be served.

Hagen received her undergraduate nursing degree from Allen College in Waterloo, Iowa. She then earned her Master of Science in Nursing- Family Nurse Practitioner Degree from Allen College in 2016. After receiving her master's degree, Hagen practiced in the southwest Iowa community of Corning until recently relocating to northwest Iowa. She is certified in Advanced Critical Life Support (ACLS), Basic Life Support (BLS), Pediatric Advanced Life Support (PALS), Trauma Nursing Core Course (TNCC), and is a trained Sexual Assault Nurse Examiner (SANE).

She looks forward to seeing patients at the Aurelia Clinic on Fridays from 8:00 a.m.-4:30p.m. In addition to her duties at the Aurelia Clinic, Hagen will continue to see patients at Cherokee Regional Clinic in Cherokee on Monday, Wednesdays and Thursdays.

The CRC Aurelia clinic is located at 225 Main St. in Aurelia. If you have any questions regarding the July 18th Open House or the clinic in general, please feel free to contact CRC Aurelia at 712.434.2101
